Palliative Medicine Physician
Division of Palliative Medicine, Department of Medicine
Dalhousie University/Nova Scotia Health Authority
Halifax, Nova Scotia

The Department of Medicine, Dalhousie University and the Nova Scotia Health Authority seeks applications for a permanent full-time Certified Palliative Medicine Physician.

The Division of Palliative Medicine is one of 15 divisions in the Department of Medicine. In addition to playing an important clinical role in the Department, division members have excellent opportunities for collaborative educational and research endeavours with protected time for scholarly activities to ensure rewarding, fulfilling career development. It is expected that the successful candidate will provide specialty clinics in the area of their expertise and participate in teaching in multiple settings.

This is a combined University/Hospital position. Academic rank will be dependent upon qualifications and experience. CCFP certified (or equivalent) candidates must have a certificate of added competence (or equivalent) in Palliative Care. FRCPC certified candidates must have either a certificate of added competence (or equivalent) in Palliative Care or Royal College certification (or equivalent) in Palliative Medicine. Preference will be given based on full time experience in palliative medicine. Candidates must be eligible for specialty licensure in Nova Scotia and must be able to independently commute to a variety of care settings served by our service.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. The Department of Medicine is committed to fostering a collegial culture grounded in diversity and inclusiveness.

Please send Curriculum Vitae and names and addresses of three referees to: Dr. David Dupere, c/o Ms. Kathryn McIlrath, Physician Resource Officer, Department of Medicine, Room 473 Bethune Building, 1276 South Park Street, Halifax, NS, B3H 2Y9 Kathryn.McIlrath@nshealth.ca. Queries can be addressed to Dr. Dupere by email at Kathryn.McIlrath@nshealth.ca

Closing date for applications is February 15, 2021.
