

Palliative Care Physician

Fraser Health- Multiple sites

British Columbia, Canada

Fraser Health is responsible for the delivery of hospital and community-based health services to over 1.9 million people in 20 diverse communities from Burnaby to Fraser Canyon within the traditional, ancestral and unceded territories of the Coast Salish and Nlaka'pamux Nations, which is home to six Métis Chartered Communities.

Our team of nearly 45,000 staff, medical staff and volunteers is dedicated to serving our patients, families and communities to deliver on our vision: Better health, best in health care.

Learn more

We are looking for Palliative Care physicians that will join and provide clinical service with our multidisciplinary team. The successful candidate will be collaborating with other Palliative Care physicians to provide most responsible provider (MRP) coverage to our Palliative Complex Care Unit (PCCU) and local hospice and provide consultation services to acute care and community-based patients.

Fraser Health has several openings for locum and permanent part-time Palliative Care Physicians at the following locations:

- 0.8 FTE at Maple Ridge community and Ridge Meadows Hospital
- 2 x 1.0 FTE at Surrey Community
- 0.5 FTE at Burnaby Community and Burnaby Hospital
- 0.8 FTE at White Rock Community and Peace Arch Hospital
- 0.6 FTE at Langley Community and Langley Memorial Hospital
- 1 x 0.8 and 1 x 0.4 at New Westminster Community and Royal Columbian Hospital

Fraser Health provides integrated, regional, comprehensive palliative care services, including 30 Palliative Complex Care Unit (PCCU) beds; consult services in 12 acute care sites as well as in the community and other settings; and support to 106 hospice beds. We provide undergraduate and post-graduate teaching in affiliation with the Division of Palliative Care at the University of British Columbia.

Qualifications:

The successful candidate will have certification from either the College of Family Physicians of Canada or the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada. Preference will be provided to individuals who have completed additional training in Palliative Medicine, from either stream outlined below:

- One-year enhanced skills residency and acquired the Certificate of Added Competence (CAC) through the College of Family Physicians of Canada.
- Two-year Royal College subspecialty in Palliative Medicine.

Remuneration: By service contract at a rate set provincially by the Ministry of Health.

Full Time/Part Time/Locum/Temporary: Full time, part time and locum

Facilities

Interested candidates may submit a letter of interest, CV and three reference letters or contact referee names to medicalstaffrecruitment@fraserhealth.ca

If you have questions or interested in learning more about this opportunity, please contact Dr. Andrew Collins, Regional Medical Director, Palliative Medicine, at andrew.collins@fraserhealth.ca.

Fraser Health values diversity in the work force and strives to maintain an environment of Respect, Caring & Trust. Fraser Health's hiring practices aspire to ensure all individuals are treated in an inclusive, equitable and culturally safe manner.